IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 12/29/2017

Biddeford, Maine- TheKitchen LLC, a subdivision of BachDish Inc, a company that produces fine china, named after CEO's favorite composer, Johanne Sabastian Bach, is proud to announce the opening of a new restaurant here in New England. After seven rounds of raising funding from venture capitalist, we can finally announce to the world our new pro-family establishment, The Kitchen Inc. In line with our company's scruples, we firmly believe that a womans place is NOT in The Kitchen, unless she is dining. To Keep in line with that goal, CEO Me-Sa "John" Ginny, is proud to announce that we will be hiring staff comprised of males only. Not a single female employee will work in this establishment, barring transgender woman of course, who are indubitably the most competent for the positions we need to staff, such as secretary, dishwasher and valet. This also puts us in compliance with the Unruh Civil Rights Act of 1969, which prohibits establishments from discriminating based on race, sex, religion, and disability.

We hope that our female guest will thoroughly enjoy our fine family dining experience, comprised of our fine male staff, who will be dressed in only the finest of attire that Men's Warehouse has to offer.

"I am proud to say that this is finally the start of a true woman's revolution within the United States. As the son of an immigrant woman, who came to the United States from Japan, and worked hard at being a cook for over twenty years, to provide for her sons, I am excited to finally be able to give back to woman. Finally, they will get to sit back and relax, allowing men to do all the work for them! I especially look forward to treating our lovely, married ladies to free dinning during Mother's Day, as well as our special all you can eat buffet for single ladies, on Valentine's Day."

While they only just broke ground on their lot, building an optimum restaurant for their female patrons, you can still make early reservations and look forward to when the doors finally open, which is the 4th of June in 2019.
